

The Word of God¹ on the second Sunday after Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas²

On a day of Sunday, the second Sunday after My resurrection, which took place on the day of Sunday, I strengthen the name of the Day of the Lord and of His rest. I the Lord, Jesus Christ, the resurrected Lord, am strengthening by the word and I say this: the first day of creation is the greatest day, and the minds of the people on earth have not been in great hurry, those who do not keep the greatest of the days, they have not hurried to understand what a great day this day is and how much meaning it has between God and man, between man and God. I am speaking to them on this day of the confirmation of My resurrection before the disciple Thomas, when he looked at Me after I was resurrected, and he touched Me for the confirmation of the mystery of My resurrection, I am telling those who remain for the day of Saturday as a day for the Lord, and I am telling them that I did not rest on the day of Saturday, after they crucified Me, but that I worked in the dwelling of the dead for the light of the day of the Sunday, of the day of the light, for I, the Lord, entered the hell as a great light, and I draw out those who had been waiting for their salvation all the time during those five thousand years and a half after the days of creation, in which man was created as well. (About these see Gospel of Nicodemus: Part II. - The Descent of Christ into Hell, r.n.) Then I came to life with great glory and I remained forty days, going from place to place appearing alive and working great miracles, and then I went in the mountain with My faithful ones, that they could be witnesses of My resurrection and then witnesses of My ascension to the Father, as few as they were at that time from among all the people on earth, and I went up from among them and I ascended to the right side of the Father, in the place where the Father has Me settled from eternity; after that, I have sent the Holy Spirit over the disciples, Who was promised to them and Who came after My ascension to the Father, and He remained with them and brought God to them, as I promised them that I would be with them to the end of the time.

On a second day of Sunday after the Sunday of My resurrection and of those who were waiting in hell for their Savior promised to Adam, the first man created, I entered again into the midst of My disciples, while they were staying together closed because of the fear of those who were looking for them, and I said to them: «Peace to you!», as these hearts, crushed and full of tension, needed much peace. And on that day, I saw the disciple Thomas among them, who was not among them on the Sunday of the resurrection, when for the first time I appeared resurrected before them. As some people stuck to the earthly things, even after My resurrection, they still minded their things. However, I was walking after them and I appeared to them so that they might understand their election and to give other things or occupations on the earth away from them, as God hired them for Him, and they still worked otherwise. However, the Holy Spirit came and He gave Himself to them, and then they were able to work only for Me, only with My walking, and I had much work to be done through them and which was to be set on earth, so that I may have a house with the man on earth, to have the man as My church, (See the selection topic: „The true church”³, r.n.) to have a body made of faithful sons, and I to become one body with them by My body and blood united with them in their own body, so that we may all be one, and that they may be the sons of the Father as I am, and the Father's love was so great that He called those who were faithful to Me God's sons!

The mind of those who remained with the old things was very weak and they did not understand from God the greatness of the day of Sunday, and which I, the Lord, sealed it as My rest after My great victory against the hell between the hour of My crucifixion and that of My resurrection on the first day of the week, on the Sunday in which I came to life victoriously, for I overcame the death and the hell and I let the people know about My day for the feast of rest, the day of My resurrection, another day of rest for the faithful ones. Only those who did not receive Christ, only those remained stubborn, for they could not change the day for the Lord, since they gave the Lord to death, not receiving Him, the One Whom the Father had sent to them.

Oh, people of My word, I am coming into your midst, son, I am coming as word, as I was entering to My disciples two thousand years ago, and as I was speaking to them after My resurrection. I am speaking with you on the way, as I spoke with those who wanted Me on their way to Emmaus. I appear to you as a great and resurrected God, as I appeared to Thomas and as I made him sure that I was. Oh, blessed are all those who believed and believe My disciples' testimony of that time for Me, the disciples who were chosen by the Father to be witnesses to My coming of that time and to proclaim it to the margins, together with the feast of My Resurrection on the first day of the week, the day of Sunday! Oh, this is how I have you too, as My witness now for My coming again on earth sent by the Father, and you confess yourself and share the word of My mouth, and blessed and chosen by the Father are those who believe God, Whom you share with them when He comes and proclaim Himself far and wide with His coming after seven thousand years from the creation of the world, and He is coming to make the world again; He is coming and He is working now the new birth of the world, and by His creation now, He is setting a new heaven and a new earth, working with the word of His mouth. (See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord”, r.n.) Oh, peace to you, people confessing of My second coming from the Father as word on earth! By the word, the Lord made the heaven and the earth in the beginning and He is working again the mystery of the new heaven, the new earth and the New Jerusalem for this mystery. (See the selection topic: „The heaven – the throne, the earth – the footstool: the man deified”, r.n.) You should have great love, people loved by God, for the Lord has revealed to you His entire work for the new birth of the world, and you, who are born from above by this word of My mouth, help to My work the Father has given to Me and stay on My right side until we will overcome the last enemy, and then there will be the new heaven, the new earth and My confessing people, by whom I will share the great joy for all of the saints who will have waited for My complete victory. Amen.

— However, I, my Lord and my God, am ordained by the saints and by the fathers and I am remembered as a great witness of Your resurrection, because You saw me with all the other disciples on the second Sunday after Your resurrection, and You came in again and gave me too such a great spirit of confession for You and for Your resurrection. Who else was then able to speak like me so fully the sweet news: “Christ has risen!”? Oh, Lord, You came to life in Your body. And in this way there will be raised the bodies of those who are now waiting, and then the prophecy for the resurrection of the bodies will come true, that which was made for their redemption by Your resurrection, (See the selection topic: „Resurrection of the dead”, r.n.) for You passed through death as a man in order to bring then the power of the resurrection for all, and there is no mind to feel this great mystery, so much covered for those that do not love life, for You are life, and those who do not live according to Your word do not love You, oh resurrected Lord!

I want to speak a great word to all those who are calling themselves servants of the churches, and I am telling them this:

Oh, open your hearts tormented by your minds and understand the Lord and His mysteries and His works! Your kingdom is ready to fall apart and to be torn down, for you have made use of it, and not the Lord, Whom you say that you serve! Oh, do not dream, after you have wandered so much from the Lord! You have done your wills and you have brought the Lord to shame, violating His will and the order established by the saints, and you have served for your pleasures, relying on the Lord and on His name, under which you have come to stay. You should know that it will happen to your kingdom as it happened to the kingdom of king Solomon, for he did like you, after the Lord set him to reign, and he joined Pharaoh, who was a pagan and a minister of idols, and in this way he spoiled the seed and the purity of God's people, and then his kingdom fell apart because it was broken and crushed, for Solomon did not listen to the law for God's people. Oh, this is what will happen to you too, those who have mingled with the pagans and corrupted the holy law, and you have done according to your own will and then you have filled with disobedience of God and of saints the entire house, the whole country chosen by God, and the Lord waits on the Romanian land for the appearance of the great mystery, the new heaven and the new earth, the new birth of the world, and you have not watched with Him and you have not listened or watched, and as a result your house has come to be divested of God, and still you do not understand with your mind, for your mind plays according to the will of satan, the antichrist, who fights against God and who will be overcome by the Lord, together with all his servants that are against God. (See the selection topic: „The antichrist and the apocalyptic beast”, r.n.)

Oh, how comes that you have wanted to come under slavery, and you have not wanted to come out of it? Behold, you have not wanted and you denied God and the saints, and your flock will soon understand this, and then you will be very much ashamed.

Oh, be faithful! You still can come to peace with God. Seek after repentance with your spirit, for the hell is terrible. Flee from satan! God is! Christ has risen! Follow Him and only Him! Take part with Him and put satan to shame, whose game you play with or without your knowledge, for his marks are everywhere upon you and he keeps you as slaves to the darkness and to the spirit of lie. Stand up and believe the word, which cries out from heaven to you! The Lord is the word in the end as it was in the beginning. Amen, amen, I say to you, the Lord is word on earth in your time on the hearth of the Romanian people, and He will be victorious by the sons who are faithful to His coming of nowadays into the midst of this nation, chosen by Him for the second coming of the Son of God to the people on earth.

“Christ has risen!”, I, the apostle Thomas, confess this, the one who touched the wounds of His crucifixion on the eight day after the day of the Sunday of His resurrection. Amen.

Oh, glory to Your resurrection, Lord, for I, Your witness to Your resurrected body, am able to speak a word of watching over those who rule into Your name over people and stay far away from Your coming of nowadays, for they are enslaved by satan, the antichrist, Your enemy and theirs! Oh, come into their midst with Your brightness, for You can give them light! Amen.

— Oh, My great disciple with the testimony of My resurrection, behold, this is what happens to those who do not watch, and they fall into the snare of the man who opposes God and they do not manage to get away with him only through Me, if they call Me to make them free, but the spirit of their pride has made them blind and I have no way to get to them to bring their salvation, for My word is not fulfilled among them, and they do not let My coming of today come powerfully upon them, as by this word I can work upon satan if they did not take sides with satan; however, satan will listen to Me and he will submit before Me, and I will bring to the Father the whole accomplished work, as I have on the hearth of the Romanian people a faithful and obedient people and I have power by his faith. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Christ has risen, son! I, the Lord strengthen you with power to prepare a day of feast for Me to come with My female and male disciples at the table with you, for by the word, I gather people from everywhere to the spring and I spend with resurrection at the table with it into the midst of My choice garden, and over which you work and watch. I strengthen the body, the spirit, the soul and the word to give ourselves with a holy feast to those who have come from far places to the spring, to the feast of the prudes of My resurrection and of My confessing disciples. Heavenly hosts will accompany them, as they accompany Me when I come to you as word. Those who are faithful to My word of today are so dear to Me, for behold, I am sending the whole heaven to meet them and to go with them on the way to the spring when they come to My joy with them here.

Peace to you, sons! Ask from Me everything that is to be and which is to be useful to the day of the meeting of the female and male disciples of My resurrection with the people that is coming together at the spring, and this day will be written together with its word of heavenly feast on earth with those who are faithful.

“Christ has risen!” and may the whole joy of My resurrection come down upon you and upon those who are going to come to the spring, oh, My people, for You are My support and you are Mine, because I am the Lord your God and I have chosen you to be Mine. Amen, amen, amen.
